Fort Walton Beach Bankruptcy Attorneys Now Include Call Back Option In Contact Form

March 30, 2018 -
Lewis & Jurnovoy, P.A., a law firm based in Fort Walton Beach, FL, has announced that they have updated their contact form. Now, people who would like to ask questions or have a case evaluated can request to receive a call back. Leaving the option unticked means they will be contacted through digital means instead.

Martin Lewis, a partner at Lewis & Jurnovoy, says: "We wanted to give people the opportunity to be contacted in a way that is convenient for them. Previously, our office would always call back someone who completed the contact form, but we realized this is not always appropriate. This is why we now give people the option to be telephoned or to be emailed about their case instead."

The Fort Walton Beach Chapter 7 bankruptcy lawyers are committed to helping people find the most appropriate way out of difficult financial situations. They also ensure that their clients understand that there is no shame in finding themselves in this situation and that help is out there. Their representation is always honest and fair, so clients know where they stand and can once again see light at the end of the tunnel.

To highlight this, Ron and Sue say on the company's website: "My wife and I want to thank Mr. Lewis and his staff for helping us with our problem. Mr. Lewis and his staff are very professional people. Thank you, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Jurnovoy, and staff for helping us. We will recommend you and your firm to anyone with this same problem. Our problem was bankruptcy."

For the Fort Walton Beach bankruptcy attorneys, the aim is to make sure people receive fair representation at all times. They have an easy to understand pricing structure and will take as much of the work out of the hands of their clients, thereby also ensuring that all the legal aspects of a case are properly managed. So popular are their services and so good their outcomes, in fact, that the firm has now opened four different offices. Those experiencing financial difficulties in Crestview, Fort Walton, Pensacola, or Panama City can all turn to Lewis & Jurnovoy, PA for help.
