September 22, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Earlier today, 3 Bees and Me announced that their sunshades with dog design comes with two free suction cups. The company added two extra suction cups in case customers will need it. They have always valued customer satisfaction, hence the freebies.

"We are very happy to tell everyone that our very popular shades for cars with a cute design now has two extra suction cups that are free. We wanted to ensure that in case a suction cup is lost, our customers will not have a problem looking for another one as replacement," says Holly James, 3 Bees and Me representative. She further added, "This is just one of our ways to show all our clients how much we value them. Customer satisfaction will always be part of our top priorities."

In terms of customer satisfaction, the company is obviously on the right path, given the number of positive reviews that it has been receiving. In one review made by Amber, she wrote, "--These are adorable. I always have sunshades hanging up when my children get inside a car to protect them from the UV rays as well as to keep the sun out of their faces. Both of my children love these simply because of the puppy on them. They do come with suction cups to attach them, and can be taken down easily and folded up pretty small which makes storing them easier. The suction cups do seem pretty strong and sturdy. For the price and how well they work, I would recommend these.?

This car shade, which fits most cars and SUVs, has a unique dog design that kids will surely appreciate. It is also a shade darker than most brands, which will protect the user from the glaring rays of the sun, but still let light pass through it. The nylon mesh screen still offers good visibility during driving. The suction cups are very easy to attach to windows. This shade is also light-weight and made in world-class durable materials.

Again, the shades by 3 Bees and Me now have two extra suction cups that are totally free of charge. The product is still available online at amazon.com.
