"Customer satisfaction has always been important to us and we believe that each aspect of our product should be well-thought of. This is the main reason why we gave importance on the size of our car shade."

Based on feedbacks, the product has received so far, the size is very ideal. In one review by Ashley Cain, she stated, -- "These shades are so cute! You receive 2 and a bunch of suction cups with your order. I like how lightweight they are and of course, the adorable puppy face! I also like how large they are. They cover a huge section of window. They are super easy to attach and it takes about 1 minute. They aren't rolled up when you receive them, they just pop open! So much nicer than the rolled ones at the baby store. My baby loves laughing at the puppy while we're in the car!?

This shade has been slowly becoming a favorite among parents for many reasons. For one, it is a shade darker than most shades available in the market today. The shade allows light to still pass through it while perfectly blocking the glaring rays of the sun. The nylon mesh screen offers good visibility for drivers, which is very important for safety. It also has a dog design that kids and even adults will enjoy.

The size of the shades for cars by 3 Bees and Me is a contributing factor why they are preferred by many nowadays. By choosing the best size for the shade, they can now cater to almost all car/SUV owner. This product is still available at amazon.
