Top 3 Tidom Earners Announce Release of New Marketing Funnel & Back Office

November 09, 2016

November 09, 2016 -
San Diego, California - The top three Tidom sales earners, who recently launched the private label business called 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle, just released a brand new marketing system. This includes switching from a website to a front end marketing funnel, and the addition of an advanced back office portal.

The marketing funnel was designed to quickly and easily lead people through the simple three step process for making money with Tidom and 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle. These steps are:

1) Whitelist emails from 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle
2) Register for and attend the free informative webinar
3) Schedule and attend a $10k call with an 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle coach

Marketing funnels take people through a specific process to reach a specific end result. This straightforward and intuitive approach makes them a superior alternative to a regular website for 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle. The back office provides a combination of services, including a training portal, CRM portal, events calendar, and an advanced system for tracking progression through the webinars, phone calls, and sales. Together these new and innovative developments will make it easier for even more people to change their lives with Tidom?s internet based, franchise-like, ?business in a box? model.

Tidom and 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle both include training modules on lead generation, sales, personal growth, motivation, meditation, and internet marketing. The ability to generate executive level income is achieved by selling one of 5 available packages; multiple product packages allow members to purchase the one that best suits their needs. Popular options include an all-in-one marketing system that offers ?done for you? resources.
