November 28, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Law Offices of Kevin Cortright in Murrieta, California, recently announced that their firm has a new office location. The new location is found in Palm Springs on 777 East Tahquitz Canyon Way in Suite 200. Atty. Cortright himself states that moving the office location was done as a means of making the firm more convenient for clients.

"We decided to move our Palm Springs law office to make our location a bit easier for clients to access," states Kevin Cortright. "We do everything we can for our clients, including making visiting our office easy and comfortable."

The new law office is located conveniently for his clients in Palm Springs as well as Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert, Desert Hot Springs, La Quinta, Indio, Cathedral City, Coachella, and various other locations around Riverside County. In addition to the Palm Springs office, the attorney still has his Murrieta office open and operating.

"We feel that with these two locations we are more likely to help all those who need us," says Mr. Cortright." The Palm Springs attorney states that his firm offers a number of legal services for those in and around the Palm Springs area.

After he obtained his Juris Doctorate in 2005 from the La Verne School of Law, Kevin Cortright set up his first law practice in Murrieta. The firm today specializes in personal injury cases, as well as work related injuries and bankruptcies.

Atty. Cortright states that his firm would not have an office, let alone two locations, if not for his clients. He states that it is and has always been the goal of the firm to effectively draft a plan to fight for each and every one of his clients, regardless of who they are, where they are from, or what they are facing with regards to legalities.

The lawyer states that he hopes clients will find the new Palm Springs location convenient and that they will contact the firm should they have any questions about any of the legal issues that the firm handles. More on Kevin Cortright and the services his firm provides can be seen on their official website.
