

Website And Blog Site Launched For The2Tails

January 09, 2017

The2Tails company offers products, a blog and mermaid videos in a variety of styles. The founders of the product line and the website are excited about sharing the mermaid experience.

Burbank CA: The2Tails and its founders are pleased to announce the launch of their website. The products available through the site include swim wear, mermaid tails and videos of of the mermaid adventure show posted on YouTube. The 3Tails was shot by the water-loving twins, Natasha and Sophia, and their friend Marlena. The entire business and website is based on the experimentation of the twins and their creation of a makeshift mermaid tail.

Mermaid tails and available in sizes and designs for men, women, teens and children's sizes. The monofin is constructed of a patented design in many rich colors, designed for beautiful mermaiding. The three teens were inspired by the Australian TV show H2O and began filming their own show for release on the YouTube Channel. The show has become highly popular, with more than 3.5 million hits. The show won the "Best Mermaid Show on the YouTube" at the World Mermaid Awards.

Two seasons of filming have been completed and the third season is in progress. The2Tails business has become a family operation, with an older sister and the mother involved in the business. The mermaid tails are a staple of the website. The website also includes Twitter posts, recent episodes and all of their news.

The line of swimwear that was launched by the team of “mermaids” as well as the tails which are the mainstay of the inventory. Accessories include tail skins, Happy Hats, and backpacks. The skins are replacement covers for the monofin tail. They are available in a range of colors and designs. Some of the skins features scales, while others are in iridescent colors.

Accessories include necklaces and pendants featuring pearls. Hair clips, bracelets, blankets and a change purses are additional accessories which are available on the website. The swimwear includes tops in various designs and colors which can be mix and match with the tails.

For more information, visit the web pages at <https://the2tails.com>.

Source: <http://www.pressadvantage.com/story/14399-website-and-blog-site-launched-for-the2tails>