

St Petersburg FL Attorney James R Kennedy Jr Announces Launch of New Website

January 06, 2017

St. Petersburg, Florida – The Law Office of James R. Kennedy, Jr., a St. Petersburg-based plaintiff's law firm, has announced the launch of a newly designed website. The site was designed to offer clients quick and easy access to essential information about the Firm's practice areas and capabilities.

James R. (Jim) Kennedy, Jr. the Firm's sole practitioner, has been serving clients in St Petersburg in the State of Florida for over 30 years. Jim's vast experience encompasses a multitude of practice areas including, but not limited to, personal injury (auto accidents, medical malpractice), family law, divorce, probate, and estate law (wills, trusts, estate planning, probate).

Says Jim, "We asked our clients what is important to them in a legal website, and we listened. What sets The Law Office of James R. Kennedy, Jr. apart from the larger law firms is our ability to provide personalized service to each client; the new site adds a digital component to that personalization. The improved functionality and enhanced rich content will help our clients to navigate through information easily and effortlessly through fresh and helpful resources, timely content and simple navigation."

Mr Kennedy has handled cases for clients all over Florida, though his practice is focused on clients in South Pinellas County; St Petersburg, Gulfport, St Pete Beach, Madeira Beach, Tierra Verde, Lealman, and Kenneth City.
