

Dr. Miinala Marketing Offers Realtor Snapshot Report On Online Reputation

March 15, 2017

Dr. Miinala Marketing, a digital marketing agency in Mercer, PA, has announced the availability of a snapshot report for its realtor clients. This is aimed as the first step in enhancing their online presence and visibility, and helping them to find the right buyers and investors for land, buildings, and property. In so doing, the company aims to help its clients increase their financial advantage and revenue. The free report has been made available to realtors so that they can understand their current situation, particularly with regards to their online reputation.

Dr. Miinala herself says: "We offer a completely new online reputation management system that makes local marketing easier than ever. What makes our system unique is that it is targeted as specific niches, such as the real estate market. With proven techniques to increase your reputation, we are ready to take you to the next level. We encourage anyone to take advantage of our snapshot report in order to see just what we can do for them."

As shown on her LinkedIn business page, Dr. Miinala has a wealth of experience in improving the online standing of companies that she has worked with. Originally, she focused specifically on attorneys, but she has now expanded this to other areas, including the real estate market and even dress shops. Through her system, she helps these companies build a solid reputation on their local market, attracting more traffic to their website, and turning them into solid customers.
