

Long Okura Attorneys At Law Announces Utah Divorce Mediation Services

June 19, 2014

Salt Lake City, Utah: Continuing the commitment to assist Utah residents in swiftly resolving their Family Law claims, Long Okura - Attorneys At Law, an established law firm specializing in Family Law, announces the establishment of Utah divorce Mediation Services with unique qualities that give divorcing parties the option to expedite and settle disputed cases without resorting to costly and time consuming lawsuits.

"This process is needed to give families control over their legal issues and reduce the stress and intimidation of litigation," said Rebecca Long Okura. This mediation program is an opportunity to expediently resolve outstanding issues so that participants can continue to rebuild their lives. "In our mediation process, people focus on the future and learn communication skills that help them avoid conflict going forward," said Rebecca Long Okura

Divorce and custody Mediation Services will allow clients to receive a Utah court-rostered mediator with extensive training and experience. Clients can quickly book their appointment online via <http://longokura.com/utah-mediation/>, allowing them to schedule at their own convenience.

Unlike other mediators, Long Okura books only one mediation per day. Therefore you never have to worry about waiting for your mediator to finish a previous session that is running longer than expected, or feeling rushed to wrap up your session when you are not ready.

In a setting with neutral, knowledgeable mediators, clients of Long Okura work jointly to come up with mutual agreements allowing both parties to move forward from a difficult situation independently and optimistically. "We are happy to bring mediation services to our firm to help people create their own solutions for far less than would be spent in court. At Long Okura - Attorneys At Law, we have a proven process to help you get through your unresolved issues in an efficient and effective way. We are Attorney Mediators who want you to focus on the future and reach lasting agreements," said Rebecca Long Okura.

With large spacious offices, Long Okura provides privacy to all clients, free parking, and flexible business hours that meet client needs. Clients visiting the office have access to amenities including high speed wifi access, snacks, soft drinks, coffee/espresso, and complimentary meals.
