Angie's List Super Service Award winners meet strict eligibility requirements, which include an 'A' rating in overall grade, recent grade, and review period grade; the company must be in good standing with Angie's List, pass a background check and abide by Angie's List operational guidelines. Only the top 5% of companies in an industry in each area will earn an Angie's List Super Service Award, making it an honor for those that receive it.

Upon receiving his latest Angie's List Super Service award, Randy Staggs, the owner of Staggs Plumbing said, "I am very proud of the company my team and I have built. Providing great service really is simple: if you take care of others, treat them well and with respect, they will take care of you. That is how I have always done business and how I will continue to run Staggs Plumbing for years to come." This award, along with numerous 5 star reviews, is just one more sign that Staggs Plumbing is doing business the right way.

Since 1990, Master Plumber Randy Staggs has been building his business on 2 primary tenets that he credits his success on. The 1st is good old-fashioned customer service. Staggs stresses to his team that if you take care of customers, they will, in turn, take care of you. He prides himself on having plumbers that are friendly, have great manners, are clean-cut, and have great plumbing skills.

The 2nd is a variation of the same rule. Randy believes that taking care of his employees will, in turn, make them want to take care of the business. "I want Staggs Plumbing to always be considered a great place to work; where my plumbers can make a good living and provide for their families," says Staggs. "Keeping their best interests in mind as I make business decisions is critical for the company's ongoing success."

This simple Christian based philosophy has kept Staggs Plumbing in business for 27 years.
