May 15, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Maya Family Dental, which is based in Chicago, IL, has announced that they are the latest addition to the 'family' of 1st Family Dental. This has resulted in the dental clinic being renamed as '1st Family Dental of Pulaski'. The staff members of the clinic serving Chicago have remained the same, and likewise with the clinic's trusted local feel.

Vicky Khawaja from the dental clinic says: "Although the name has been changed from Maya Family Dental to 1st Family Dental of Pulaski, Dr. Amneh Arnous, Dr. Hala Elkhadra, Dr. Anas Al Najjar, and staff will continue to provide the same excellent service you've always expected. In fact, we'll be updating the office and equipment throughout the coming months to make sure we can provide you and all of the Albany Park and Irving Park neighborhoods of Chicago with excellent care and customer service, in a beautiful setting, for years to come. With that, those who are in need of a Chicago dentist won't be disappointed."

By joining the 1st Family Dental group, the clinic is able to build on their extensive experience, equipment, and knowledge. Essentially, it is a move that has enabled them to further enhance the treatments and services that they offer to their patients. In addition, 1st Family Dental of Pulaski will be able to take advantage of the fantastic reputation the group practice already has.

".... Probably the best and most thorough dentist I've ever had," says Arne P. on the 1st Family Dental website. "Not to mention the front desk staff is polite and courteous. You don't always get that at dentist or doctor's office, but they are awesome, and very accommodating. I had a root canal done with minimal pain!"

The 1st Family Dental group has worked tirelessly at building its reputation throughout the Chicagoland area and it is excited to grow with the addition of 1st Family Dental of Pulaski.
