The Top Dog Deals is a company that aims to provide a range of high-quality items for dogs and for dog lovers. They are continuously in the process of adding new products to their collection, aiming to eventually have products available for every dog breed. They have recently announced that they now added the Cavalier King Charles section to their website.

A representative from The Top Dog Deals says: "The Cavalier King Charles is such a beautiful dog. We rely on our clients to tell us which breeds they would like to see as part of our collection, and we're so happy that this particular breed is now included. Currently, we only have one product available, but continue to watch that space because we will be adding more."

The product that the company representative is referring to is a dress necklace, which is a piece of outstanding beauty. The zinc alloy pendant comes with a link chain necklace measuring 45cm in length. The pendant itself measures 50mm by 37mm. It is available in blue, brown, gray, red, purple, and multi-colors.

The pendant shows a Cavalier King Charles, with accents in the chosen color on the ears, head, feet, and tail. The body, meanwhile, is a multi-color mandala design that really stands out. The pendant has also been featured on the company's Pinterest page, where many people have already saved the pin for future reference.

"When we first saw this pendant, we knew we had to add it to our collection," explains the representative. "It is so beautiful that I would personally wear it even if I don't have a Cavalier King Charles."

The Top Dog Deals is also very active on Twitter, through which they communicate with their clients about new products and new breeds that should be added. Any new products that are added to the Cavalier King Charles range, or to any of the other dog breed ranges, will also be mentioned on their Twitter feed. The representative says: "We encourage everyone to follow us on Twitter because we love hearing from you. Whether you have purchased one of our products or want to suggest we add something else, let us know."
