

Provider of UPS Shipping in Pensacola Updates Customers of UPS' Hurricane Involvement

October 12, 2017

Pensacola, Fla. – In the aftermath of Hurricane Maria, Pack & Ship Business Center, a leading provider of UPS shipping in Pensacola, FL, knows that its concerned customers need to stay up to date on the status of Puerto Rico.

As a U.S. territory, tons of citizens are worried about the plight of Hurricane Maria's attack on Puerto Rico. Fortunately, UPS has stepped in place to help manage and alleviate the issues caused by the storm. As of early October, UPS shipping has restored its shipping duties to the majority of Puerto Rico's postal areas.

"We understand that it's not easy for UPS to provide sustainability to the people of Puerto Rico, but it's definitely worth a generous shot for a neighboring location in need," Thomas Armstrong said.

Currently, there are freight services available to nearly 85 percent of the island's zip codes. UPS has also offered to provide a hurricane aid discount to individual customers. These provided benefits and more are just a few reasons why the post office in Pensacola, FL, respects the UPS' services so much.

"Focusing in on getting the necessary supplies to the citizens of Puerto Rico is imperative for the UPS team," Armstrong said. "We are proud to work with a company that will move mountains to help others."

For more information regarding Pack and Ship, please visit <http://www.packandshipstores.com> or call (850) 455-1234.

Source: <http://www.pressadvantage.com/story/18865-provider-of-ups-shipping-in-pensacola-updates-customers-of-ups-hurricane-involvement>