May 01, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Lewis & Jurnovoy, a Pensacola bankruptcy attorneys firm, has announced that they have updated their website to further reflect why they are the lawyers of choice. The previously held information, which dispelled the myths on bankruptcy, remains available, but more details have been added about the law firm itself. Additionally, it is now easier to schedule a free, no obligation consultation with the firm.

Martin Lewis from Lewis & Jurnovoy, says: "Due to the financial turmoil that many individuals seem to be going through in their daily life in trying to pay bills each month and in trying to protect their assets, we envisioned the need to represent and inform the general public of options available to persons in financial distress."

One of the aspects that have made the Pensacola debt consolidation lawyer so popular is the fact that they place such a heavy emphasis on making it clear that having to file for bankruptcy is not something to be ashamed of. That said, they also encourage people to contact them before they need to file for bankruptcy, and when they start to experience financial distress, as other solutions may be available. Martin Lewis continues: "If you are in financial trouble, remember that you are not alone. Every year we have helped thousands of people just like you to find the legal solutions they needed to put their finances and their lives back on track."

In order to assist people in finding out the type of help that they need, the law firm has released a short questionnaire on their website, as well. The questions focus both on things that may be happening in the physical environment, such as debt collectors coming to the door or calling at home, as well as the psychological impact of bankruptcy, such as having sleepless nights, or unproductivity at work.

This helpfulness and true commitment to making the best out of a bad situation for their clients is what has set Lewis & Jurnovoy, PA, apart as one of the best bankruptcy attorneys in the area. They have received countless positive testimonials from people who have been able to get their lives back on track following situations often beyond their control.
