

New Range Of Luxury Vinyl Flooring Introduced By Quick-Step

January 07, 2019

DG Heath, a business based in Pontarddulais, Swansea,

South Wales, has announced that Quick-Step has introduced a new range of luxury vinyl flooring. DG Heath is a major stockist of Quick-Step floors in South Wales, UK, and they have now added the new range of vinyl floors to their display.

Dean Heath from DG Heath says, “We are happy to announce the availability of the Quick-Step Livyn vinyl plank floors, which is a collection of luxury lino floors. Lino is a kind of flooring that is exceptionally quiet to walk on. And because it is also 100 percent waterproof, it is often used for bathroom floors and kitchen floors. And because of the patented Uniclic Multifit system, the vinyl floor can be installed, quickly and cost effectively.”

The luxury vinyl flooring now available through DG Heath include the Quickstep Pulse Click, Quickstep Balance Click, Quickstep Pulse Plus Click, Quickstep Balance Plus Click, trims and accessories, Quickstep Rigid Balance, and Quickstep Rigid Balance Plus.

Meanwhile, the high quality of the products and services provided by the vinyl flooring company has been attested to by past customers. For instance, Dave E gave them five stars and said, “I have been using DG Heath to supply materials for my building, home renovation and garden landscaping projects for many years. It is my first point of contact for advice on product suitability. Always great advice, service, pricing and delivery.”

Irene R also gave DG Heath a five star rating and said, “I had my floors laminated with beautiful material. I am really pleased! A great job carried out by a professional carpenter, who worked really hard. Material delivered on time in advance. Highly recommend in all aspects. Thank you.”

DG Heath offers a wide range of products that are used for home construction. For the inside of the home, DG Heath provides doors, staircase parts, flooring, insulation, bathroom products, underfloor heating, and furniture. For outside the home, DG Heath provides garden structures, garden fencing, landscaping, garden gates, external wall cladding, garden decking, treatments and preservatives, roofing, and rainwater & guttering.

DG Heath also offers timber supplies. These include joinery timber and mouldings, plywood and sheet materials, treatments and preservatives, and square cut timber. Furthermore, they also provide various tools and accessories, such as hand tools, power tools, and power tool accessories.

DG Heath is a family-operated business that specializes in providing high quality timber-related products across Swansea and surrounding areas. It was founded more than 30 years ago in Pontarddulais. The efforts of the company had earned them an excellent reputation among its retail and trade customers because of their expertise, value, quality and service. From its warehouses and huge timber yard, DG Heath supplies and stocks a wide range of products, including flooring, doors, fencing, decking, sheet materials, garden buildings, and general timber. They also have indoor showrooms where they display the various things needed for a timber project including door furniture, shower wall paneling, underfloor heating, and stairs.

Meanwhile, as a way to better serve their customers, they also provide DIY guides on their website. For instance, they have posted DIY guides on how to fit a feather edge timber fence, laminate floor fitting, and fitting wood flooring using the Uniclic system.

Dean Heath has also established a YouTube channel, where he posts videos to guide people on timber projects. For example, he has posted videos on various projects in Swansea, including decorative panels, fencing off timber decking, a children's playhouse, garden arbours, and garden cabins.

DG Heath has also established a Facebook page where they feature the various products that they have on stock. For instance, one Facebook post is a video where Dean Heath answers the question on what floors are suitable for bathrooms. On another Facebook post, a photograph is shown of a wooden effect laminate flooring designed with Hydro seal and that is appropriate for kitchens and bathrooms.

Those who need more information about flooring and other products available at DG Heath can visit their website or contact them by phone.
