DG Heath in Swansea, South Wales is celebrating 15 years of supplying wood flooring to local customers and tradesmen. The company offers products and services throughout South Wales and has expanded their selections over the years to now include more than 300 different types of floor coverings.

Dean Heath, a spokesperson for the company says, “We are thrilled to have reached this milestone. Our main goal is and has always been complete customer satisfaction. We recently expanded our showroom in order to give our customers more of what they want; a wider selection of floor coverings for all of their home and business needs.”

DG Heath is a family owned company that has a total of 30 plus years providing timber and flooring to customers in and around Swansea. The company currently offers a number of products and services, including laminate, vinyl, hardwood and other floor coverings. They provide customers with a wide range of luxury flooring as well as various adhesives, flooring levelers and different cleaning products for their chosen flooring types. Heath states that they work directly with home and business owners as well as with construction and remodeling companies throughout South Wales.

“We have something for everyone,” says Dean. “Whether you are a business that builds homes or a homeowner who wants to do a remodel of your kitchen or living room, we have the flooring materials that are perfect to meet your needs.”

Dean says that the flooring company works with customers on an individual basis to ensure that they get the specific type of flooring that they need. He says that customers that are not sure of what they want can visit their new expanded showroom and see a number of samples. He states that they recently expanded their showroom in order to make room for all of the flooring samples that they provide, so that customers can get a better idea of what they want for their home or business.

The company sells laminate as well as solid oak, vinyl and various other types of flooring. Dean says that anyone in the area is welcome to come and view their available samples and learn more about the products and services that they offer. He states that they have experienced staff members on hand to assist customers with their flooring choices and that their consultants can help home and business owners to find the specific floor covering that will meet their design, aesthetic, style and budgeting needs.

DG Heath has been providing timber and other materials to individuals and construction type businesses in Swansea for more than 30 years. The company states that they are pleased to have been offering the finest quality of flooring materials to customers for the past 15 years and state that customers are always welcome to visit them at their showroom to view their selections of laminated flooring, wood flooring and other floor covering materials. The company offers rough timber for building needs as well as other products that are used to help preserve that timber in addition to decking materials, fencing needs, engineered flooring supplies and various power and hand tools.
