

Camryn Limousine Publishes Post On Why People Should Make Charlottesville Their 2019 Travel Destination

February 05, 2019

Camryn Limousine has announced that they have recently published a blog post on why people should make Charlottesville, VA, their 2019 travel destination. Charlottesville is a city in Virginia that contains the state's most popular destinations, particularly for wine and beer lovers, and foodies. It has several vineyards, wineries and craft breweries and it has also a vibrant restaurant industry. The blog post can be read at <https://bit.ly/2UJ8IUh>.

Bill Kerr, spokesperson for Camryn Limousine, says, "Charlottesville is certainly a city to visit, especially for those who love food because of the quality restaurants in the area, and most especially the breweries and wineries. This city has even earned the recognition of being the second best place to visit in Virginia. And for those who love history, they can feast their eyes on Monticello, the former home of Thomas Jefferson. This is a World Heritage Site and an architectural masterpiece. This alone will make your trip to Charlottesville worthwhile."

Aside from Thomas Jefferson's heritage, there are various wineries and vineyards in Charlottesville. Currently, winemakers in the city have around 40 years of experience in planting vineyards and making wine, the fruits of which include the wines from the Monticello American Viticultural Area, which is considered to be the best produced in the Eastern United States. Meanwhile, the Jeffersonian Wine Grape Growers' Society boasts of 30 wineries located within a 25-mile radius of Charlottesville that produce wines that have been recognized nationally and globally.

Camryn Limousine offers both wine tours and art tours in Charlottesville, Central Virginia, and Albemarle County. The wineries and breweries that clients can go to include the Albemarle Cider Works, Afton Mountain Vineyards, Barboursville Vineyards, Autumn Hill Vineyards, Blenheim

Vineyards, Barren Ridge Vineyards, Cooper Vineyards, Cardinal Point Winery, DeFosse Vineyards and Winery, Crosskeys Vineyards, Early Mountain Vineyards, Ducard Vineyards, Flying Fox Vineyard, First Colony Winery, Blue Mountain Barrel House, Blue Mountain Brewery, Castle Hill Cider, Bold Rock Hard Cider, Devils Backbone Brewery, Champion Brewing Company, and many more.

Clients can choose from various luxury vehicles that make up the fleet of Camryn Limousine. These vehicles can be classified as sedans, limousines, buses, SUVs, and VanTerras. The sedans can transport three people comfortably while the SUVs can comfortably seat four people up to a maximum of six. The stretch limousines will allow 10 people to be seated comfortably, while the VanTerras can seat 10 to 14 people. Those who want to visit Camryn Limousine can check out their Google Maps page at <https://goo.gl/maps/L9DqyGL3qzy>.

While the wine tours bring clients to the various vineyards and wineries in the area, the art tours bring them to the studios and galleries of the artists in the area so that they can actually meet the artists and see them at work.

Camryn Limousine began offering wine tours in 2005, and it has been the focus of the business from the very start when John Hunt and Bill Kerr established the company. Bill oversees the operations of the company while John is the chief financial officer. Bill was a police officer in New York City, Virginia Beach, and Charlottesville and is at present a Charlottesville City firefighter. John is a pediatrician and previously a tenured associate professor at the University of Virginia. John is also the chief medical officer of a non-profit organization in Liberia, West Africa. Those who want to get more information or want to schedule a wine tour can visit their website at <http://camryn-limo.com> or call them by phone.

That the services provided by Camryn Limousine are top quality is attested to by the positive reviews the company has received. In fact, they have a perfect 5 star rating after more than 30 reviews. For instance, Lisa S. gave them five stars and said, "Our family did the tacky light tour with Camryn Limousine tonight. The whole experience was amazing, our driver Victor gave us a beautiful tour and dropped us off for dinner, he was very courteous and professional. The customer service was top notch, our driver was on time, transportation was spotless and our tour was perfect. Looking forward to scheduling our next trip with Camryn."
