

The Texas Mortgage Pros Announces New Location In Corpus Christi

February 07, 2019

The Texas Mortgage Pros has announced the opening of a new office location. The company states that their new location on Buffalo Street in Corpus Christi, Texas is now open for business. The company also announced that they are now teaming up with Prodigy Lending after a merger that was designed to benefit both companies and their clients.

Jason Turner, a representative for the company says, "We are pleased to announce the opening of our newest location in Corpus Christi. We feel that this will give us an opportunity to help so many more clients by offering a more localized approach to their financial needs."

Turner states that the company's recent merger will also enable them to help more clients in the future. He says that Corpus Christi is filled with beautiful real estate and that it is one of the most desired places to live in Texas. Sitting on the Gulf of Mexico, Corpus Christi offers beach living and a plethora of natural wildlife, including various species of migratory birds. Turner says that between the bay and beaches, and the Mustang and Padre Islands, those planning a relocation to Corpus Christi will find this one of the most relaxing places to live in the nation.

"We are thrilled that we get to help people with the decision of moving to this beautiful area," says Turner. "The real estate market in the area is filled with lovely homes, homes that would make wonderful places for families. That's what we do. We help families to navigate through the often confusing mortgage process and find a solution that fits their needs perfectly."

Turner says that the new location will enable those who are planning to move into the area to more easily find and purchase the home of their dreams. The mortgage lender Corpus Christi states that instead of driving to another location for financial resources for buying a home, those in the area will find this new location to be ideal for their financial needs. He states that the company offers a number of resources and financial tools that are designed to help their clients to realize their dreams of owning their own homes.

Turner says that Corpus Christi is one of the most popular places in the state with regards to relocation, which is one reason that the company planned this new office location. He states that while there are a number of online services and other local office from other branches, his company offers more resources for those planning relocation and states that they work with each client individually to ensure that their unique needs are met. He states that they do not offer a cookie cutter financial solution for clients but rather a one-on-one approach to their financial needs.

Turner states that the company urges anyone in the area who is looking for a true partner for the mortgage process to contact them to schedule an initial consultation. He says that their new location is easily accessible from anywhere around the Corpus Christi area and states that those interested can find more information about this new location, as well as others that the company has recently opened, by visiting them online.

The company states that they have opened other locations throughout the state, in addition to their Corpus Christi Corpus Christi location, in an attempt to reach as many clients as possible with their wide selection of tools and resources. Turner says that anyone interested can visit the company online to gain more information about their partners and practices, as well as their other locations around the state. The company urges those who are looking at real estate in the area to learn more on their website or contact them directly by phone or email to schedule a consultation to get started on the process. The website offers location and direction information for those in all of the locations that they currently have offices.

Source: <http://www.pressadvantage.com/story/25198-the-texas-mortgage-pros-announces-new-location-in-corpus-christi>