

The Texas Mortgage Pros Has A New Location In Fort Worth

February 07, 2019

The Texas Mortgage Pros has announced a number of new locations throughout the state. The financial services company recently announced that their new Fort Worth office is up and running. They also announced a new partnership merger with Prodigy Lending. The company states that their new office location, in combination with their new partnership merger will enable them to assist many more clients with their home buying needs.

Jason Turner, a representative for the company says, "Fort Worth has been a thriving location for decades. We are pleased to finally have our new Fort Worth office opened and ready for business. Our team is here to assist those in this area with a number of resources and tools that will enable them to make their dreams of owning a home a reality."

Turner states that the company offers a number of programs and resources for home buyers. He says that the real estate market in Fort Worth is thriving and as such, the company has decided that an office in this area will benefit them as well as their local clients.

"Having a local office is essential for those who have never been through the process of buying a home," says Turner. "We have a number of new locations, all of which were thoroughly thought out in order to provide our assistance where we feel that it is needed most. Clients will no longer have to travel for hours to reach someone to help them with their needs."

Turner says that the Fort Worth mortgage brokers work with a number of financial institutions and government agencies to provide clients with a personalized approach to home buying. He states that because consumers feel more confident in working with a local company, the company decided to place offices in as many local areas as possible.

Studies show that consumers place more trust in local businesses. Local economies thrive when new businesses open and it helps consumers to save time and money over driving hours to get the services that they need. Turner states that this is the reason that the company has decided to open this and other new locations; to provide more convenience for their clients and to establish more of a connection with their local communities.

Turner says that the company feels the frustration that many consumers face when going through this process for the first time. He says that wading through paperwork and finding the right financial instrument for buying a home can be a long, tedious and other confusing process, particularly for those who are new to the process. He states that his team has years of experience in assisting clients with their needs and adds that they work with clients on a one-on-one basis, choosing resources and solutions that best fit the individual needs of each family as opposed to following a cookie cutter type solution.

Turner adds that each client is treated with the respect and compassion that they need to get through this process. He states that the company as a whole has decades of experience and the knowledge that goes along with it that is needed to help clients to find the solutions that fit their credit and budgeting needs.

The company states that anyone looking for Fort Worth home loans is welcome to visit them on their official website to learn more about the financial resources that they offer. He states that the process will begin with an initial consultation, where the company can get to know the client and learn more about their desires and their financial needs or assets. Those who are interested can visit the company online for their contact information and contact them directly by phone or email to schedule the initial consultation. Turner states that anyone who has questions can contact them to speak with a representative who can quickly answer those questions and help the client to get started on the right foot.

Source: <http://www.pressadvantage.com/story/25199-the-texas-mortgage-pros-has-a-new-location-in-fort-worth>