

The Texas Mortgage Pros Opens New Austin Location

February 07, 2019

The Texas Mortgage Pros has announced that they have opened their new location in Austin, Texas. The company provides a wide range of financial services for those looking to buy a home. A representative for the company states that they also recently merged to form a partnership with Prodigy Lending in an effort to assist more clients with their financial needs.

Jason Turner with the company says, “We are pleased to have our new office opened on Fifth Street in Austin. Combined with our new merger with Prodigy, we are excited that we will be able to help those in the Austin area to get into their dream homes.”

Turner says that the company feels a local approach is better for those looking at the home buying process. He says that studies indicate that consumers are much more comfortable working with a local company for financial issues and says that they are pleased that this new office is now open and ready to assist those currently looking in the housing market.

“We want to be a part of the community and as such, we need to be in that community,” Turner adds. “We feel that our new Austin location will be a benefit to us and even more importantly, to those living in or planning to relocate to Austin.”

Turner says that the location is easily accessible from anywhere in or around Austin and suggests that those who would like to learn more about the new location for home loans Austin can visit them online. The company’s website offers more information about all of their new office locations with maps and directions to help clients to find them easily. Turner says that the website also offers a detailed look at the programs and resources that the company offers and contact information for interested consumers to schedule a consultation.

The company states that the initial consultation is the first and most important aspect of the entire process. Turner states that the company uses this first contact to establish a relationship with each client. He says that the company treats each client as an individual, preparing a personalized solution for each situation. He states that while there are a number of larger institutions that offer these services and many online options for consumers, the company feels that a local presence will help clients to feel more at ease when exploring their options for purchasing a new home.

Turner continues that the company’s goal is always to establish a trusting relationship with clients. He states that they work one-on-one with each client and help them to determine the best route for their dreams of owning their own home. The company states that their mission is to be trusted by those that they assist, and they state that they offer a wide range of options to fit every specific need and circumstance.

Turner states that the housing market in Austin is currently in favor of buyers and says that this makes it the perfect time for those who are planning a move or a relocation to the area to consider their real estate options. He says that the company is staffed with qualified and experienced individuals who go out of their way to ensure that each client gets the personalized attention that they deserve.

Those who are interested in learning more about the Austin mortgage lender or any of the programs that they offer can visit them online for a detailed listing of their services. The company states that they are always available through phone or email for those who would like to schedule an appointment or who may have questions about the process. The company's website also offers detailed driving directions to their new Austin location, as well as their various other locations around the state of Texas. Turner states that anyone who is interested is welcome to visit them online or contact them directly to learn more.

Source: <http://www.pressadvantage.com/story/25200-the-texas-mortgage-pros-opens-new-austin-location>