

The Texas Mortgage Pros Announces Brand New Location In Dallas Texas

March 04, 2019

The Texas Mortgage Pros has announced that they have recently established a brand new location in Dallas, Texas. This means that they can now better serve their home buying clients in Dallas and neighboring areas. This company strives to be the best in their industry, providing top quality services for home buyers in Texas. Aside from Dallas, the company serves The Woodlands, San Antonio, Austin, Corpus Christi, El Paso, Grand Prairie, Midland, Abilene, Arlington, and Houston.

Jason Turner, spokesperson for The Texas Mortgage Pros, says, "We are so happy to announce that we have opened a brand new location in Dallas. This is good news for home buyers in Dallas and the surrounding areas. We have the best teams in this particular industry in Texas. We are committed to serving the needs of home buyers in Dallas and nearby areas so that they can have the home of their dreams. Our ultimate goal is to create a lasting relationship with each of our clients that we may continue to provide excellent service for many years to come. Unlike many similar companies that are out there, all your information will be kept secure and private. Our name is trusted throughout the industry."

As a mortgage lender in Dallas, The Texas Mortgage Pros offers customized services for home buyers, depending on their situation and their needs. They have developed the reputation of being able to provide the lowest rates and they have also gained recognition as the best company in their industry for the Greater Houston Area. They also do their best to make sure that it will be much easier for home buyers to be prequalified. Their services have been of such high quality that customers have left highly positive reviews about them.

For instance, Nina G. had given The Texas Mortgage Pros a five star rating and said, "Called The Texas Mortgage Pros to get a home loan, after being denied by 2 other lenders. Not only did they help us fix our credit issues, but got us approved for the exact house we wanted. Very impressed with this mortgage company."

Meanwhile, Andy L. also gave them five stars and said, "First time home buyer, and had no idea what I was getting myself into. Called The Texas Mortgage Pros, and I can't believe how hard Jason worked to get me approved. I'm young, and obviously haven't handled everything in life the best I could have, and was afraid I wasn't going to get into the home we wanted. Jason, literally went to bat for me, and got us approved for a home loan, and I can't thank him enough. So thankful for The Texas Mortgage Pros!"

Experts from The Texas Mortgage Pros will conduct one-on-one talks with clients to determine their specific needs and preferences so that they can offer a custom-fitted plan for each home buyer that will comply with their situation and their expectations. Whether their clients want to buy their very first home or their dream home, or are in a particular situation, The Texas Mortgage Pros experts will guide them and help them in finding the appropriate option with the lowest rate possible.

The Texas Mortgage Pros has done its best to attract and hire the most qualified professionals in their industry from all over Texas. This is in line their mission of providing the best possible service and the lowest rates to their clients. These professionals have many years of experience and will do their best to be able to offer the lowest possible rates and a broad range of alternatives for people not just in Dallas but also in other areas in Texas like Houston, Spring, San Antonio, Fort Worth, El Paso, Austin, and The Woodlands.

The Texas Mortgage Pros is a home loans Dallas company that provides various choices for home buyers. Those interested may want to contact them through their website or call them on the phone.

Source: <http://www.pressadvantage.com/story/25748-the-texas-mortgage-pros-announces-brand-new-location-in-dallas-texas>