September 25, 2019

Bringing hope to those in need: one of San Diego, California's premier rehab facilities have received yet another stellar review from a satisfied patient who left their thoughts on Google Reviews. Hope Canyon Recovery, located in 2821 Lange Ave, San Diego, CA 92122 continues to tackle substance abuse and addiction—one patient at a time.

Michael Frigon had this to say about Hope Canyon Recovery: “Hope Canyon Recovery was and is still to this day the best rehabilitation center I have ever been to. The staff is amazing and very compassionate about what they do. If it were not for Hope Canyon, I would not be the man I am today.”

“This program completely changed my whole perspective on multiple things. My life has been so much better since I have left this program. Brandon, the owner, is an amazing and very kind-hearted individual who really cares about your comfort levels at his program,” Frigon added. “I appreciate him and the whole staffing team there at Hope Canyon. Nadia is a wonderful case manager and Sahra was stage best nurse! Very kind and loving people. I am so grateful for all they have done for me and I can proudly say I am 6 months sober today because of Hope Canyon's help! Highly recommend this facility.” Click the link to read his review on Hope Canyon Recovery in San Diego.

For Americans under the age of 50, substance abuse and addiction is now the leading cause of death. An epidemic of prescription drug abuse currently affects the country, and overdose is now a major public health concern. Hope Canyon Recovery understands that addiction can destroy lives, dismantle families, and ruin communities—and knows that it doesn't have to stay this way.
