

KC Towing Service in Santa Ana, CA Just Launched

October 10, 2019

KC Towing, a California-based towing service provider has announced the expansion of its towing service in Santa Ana, CA and nearby areas. Reputed for its excellent tow truck services, the expansion means people in Santa Ana will now obtain first-rate towing and roadside assistance services in the city.

Rudy Mullen, the spokesperson of KC Towing says, "Towing is a crucial transportation service in our society because of our ever-growing number of vehicles. Motorists experience different roadside problems, such as battery drains, flat tires or derailment from the roads. Some may need their vehicles to be towed away to prevent road obstructions and facilitate normal traffic flow. Anyone encountering roadside problems in Santa Ana and its adjacent areas can now find and rely for fast towing assistance without any difficulty."

The company operates 24 hours a day 7 days a week without any breaks or holidays. That is their commitment to helping people. Among their primary services include auto wrecker service, battery jumpstart, spare tire changes, car lockout help, and winching services. KC Towing will come to the rescue within 30 minutes because it understands how precious time is to the people. Whether it is a simple spare tire change or a vehicle needs to be hauled, the company vows to provide fast response and assistance to anyone in need.

Mullen explains that flexibility and resourcefulness are exceptional features for KC Towing. He states that their organization can handle all types of vehicles whether it's a high-end sports car, an average sedan, a recreational vehicle or a wrecked automobile. He emphasizes the need for dealing with emergency roadside problems with a sense of urgency and quick help. He also believes that a company that is genuinely concerned with the people's welfare can provide the most reliable services to motorists and travelers in Santa Ana, CA. For high-end vehicles, sports cars, and antique cars, KC Towing provides flatbeds to securely transport them to distant locations. It also provides wrecking services for all kinds and sizes of vehicles. Motorists, who face any car problem in Santa Ana or its neighboring areas, can dial their numbers and be rest assured that help is on the way. The company's emergency assistance phone number is open and managed by dedicated agents and dispatchers any time of the day any day of the week.

Mullen adds that KC Towing has a very efficient and responsive dispatching unit. He says, "We provide quick response and hassle-free assistance through our phone number. All our dispatchers are courteous, helpful, respectful, and trained to make fast assessments of customer needs. Almost all towing calls are pressing in nature, that's why we always strive to respond to customers as fast as possible."

The company also offers affordable local and long-distance services. Local towing services refer to services within the city limits. Long-distance towing pertains to inter-state and inter-city transportation. The company is proficient in rendering both types of services. Motorists and car owners need not look for other tow operators because the company can provide all the towing requirements that they may need at any time.

The company also offers different roadside assistance for stranded vehicles. It offers jumpstart services for a malfunctioning battery, assistance to drivers who are lockout of their cars, and gas delivery for cars that ran out of fuel to name a few. Those who need more information about them or want to know where their offices are located can take a look at their Google Maps page at <http://gmbp.in/u/5d9f49ca2b9b6>.

It is the company policy to leave no one unassisted. Customers who call for help will receive assistance no matter where they are stranded in Santa Ana or its close communities. As Mullen explains, "Our professional services are fast, reliable and cheap. We are more than happy to serve the people of Santa Ana for any towing assistance they may need in the future."
