

TWT Exteriors & Roofing Expanding to Include Both Austin and San Antonio Areas

December 06, 2019

TWT Exteriors & Roofing, based in Austin, Texas, has announced that they have been expanding and are now serving both the Austin and San Antonio areas. The Austin roofing company explained that they have been expanding in the Austin market to have more commercial offerings, such as roofing, masonry, siding, maintenance, concrete, striping, parking lots, driveways, and more. They pride themselves in offering value-added commercial and home improvement services.

Keith Wright, owner of TWT Exteriors & Roofing, says, "Our Austin team has a complete understanding of commercial roofing and details that make the difference between a good roof and great roof. Using only highest quality, longest lasting commercial roof systems, coupled with quality craftsmanship and attention to detail really sets us apart. No matter what size, complexity of design or material requirements, the experienced staff at TWT can get the job done. Our goal is to help set the standard in commercial roofing by providing exceptional service, performance, and quality in every project. We work hard to keep our clients informed and educated as to what they are getting and why, all while keeping within their budget. On budget, on time, no exceptions."

With the company's expansion of its services in Austin and in the San Antonio areas, residents and businesses in those areas stand to benefit. For commercial establishments, they will be able to depend on TWT Exteriors & Roofing whatever the size, complexity of design, or material needs. And while working on commercial roofing projects, their team members minimize their intrusion into the work areas, including the parking facilities, to make sure that there's little to no interference in the business operations. They provide various kinds of commercial roofing, including single-ply roofing, built-up roofing, modified bitumen roofing, and silicone and acrylic coatings.

For residential roofing, they offer various kinds of roofing for homes, such as asphalt composition shingles, metal roofing, and tile roofing. They also offer the Equinox® Louvered Roof system, which provides an outdoor living space that can be controlled by the home residents when want to enjoy the outdoors. This is a solar-powered and motorized adjustable patio cover. With just the touch of a button, the louvers can be positioned anywhere within their 160-degree range of motion to provide the appropriate amount of ventilation or projection that is desired by the home residents. And being solar-powered, this particular louvered roofing system does not add to the electric bills and does not negatively affect the environment.

TWT Exteriors & Roofing also provides services for outdoor living, such as decks, patios, fireplaces, and kitchens. For decks, designers from the company will walk the client through the process by selecting quality materials that can be utilized to come up with the design that the client wants and then pass on the chosen design to the project manager.

And then the company also provides patios and patio covers that can serve to improve on the outdoor living area, which can be used for family gatherings, celebrations, parties, or for simply relaxing. Once again, the team from the company will help homeowners in choosing the design and materials and what is best for the clients' needs and desires.

TWT Exteriors & Roofing also offers assistance with outdoor and patio fireplaces, which serve as an important addition to outdoor living. The glow of an outdoor fireplace can serve to invite people to sit down, relax, and enjoy the outdoors. And finally, they can also help with the creation of an outdoor kitchen, which would allow family and friends to enjoy outdoor cooking. This kitchen is usually equipped with barbecue grills, fireplace, weather proofed cabinets, refrigerators, and more.

People who are looking for residential and commercial Austin and San Antonio roofing services can visit the TWT Exteriors & Roofing website, or contact them on the telephone or through email. They are open from Monday to Friday, from 8:00 am to 6:00 pm, and on Saturdays, from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.
