

Ann Den Boer Named State Director Of SD Realtors

December 04, 2019

Sioux Falls, South Dakota-based Ann Den Boer Real Estate Group has announced the appointment of Ann Den Boer as the company's new State Director. In her new position, she will take on new responsibilities and obligations to support the company's missions and needs to ensure their proper function as well as forge mutually successful relationships with their clients.

Den Boer says, "It is an immense honor to be entrusted with these new responsibilities that are vital for the company's success. I have not spared any effort serving my clients at the firm, and I plan on taking the same approach when it comes to my new obligations as the office's State Director. I hope to work with my team to reach new heights and achieve ever greater objectives, continually improving the services we offer in order to guarantee our clients the best experience."

Den Boer has served as a realtor at the Sioux Falls real estate company for many years, and she has proven herself one of the most qualified and caring individuals in its ranks. She was a successful business executive before she dedicated herself to the real estate industry, though she decided to move on to another career path that offered more flexibility. Since then, she has spent her time matching people with their ideal home. Her coworkers describe her as an individual with a keen eye for imagery—who does not hesitate to put that skill at the disposal of her clients.

Den Boer's qualities makes her the preferred option for many of the firm's clients, among whom she has a reputation for being a steady, invested, and emphatic realtor. The vast majority of her clients come from word of mouth referrals, who continue to choose her when they need seamless and hassle-free guidance through the real estate acquisition process.

From now on, her expertise and leadership capabilities will be set on helping the company more directly, as she will advise, govern, and oversee the policy and direction of the office as a whole. Her position's responsibilities include representing the office on the Realtor Association of the Sioux Empire Board of Directors as well as the South Dakota Association of Realtors Board of Directors, conveying the firm's goals and necessities with a firm hand. She will also stay in touch with each Associations' missions, services, changes in policies, and new programs. Promoting the Realtor Association of the Sioux Empire is also among her responsibilities, as well as ensuring its success through advice based on her experience.

She will also begin formulating and overseeing MLS Rules and Regulations as well as Administrative Policies and Procedures. She will serve as a member of the firm's Board of Directors and attend all of its meetings in addition to the General Membership meeting. She is also expected to participate and provide verbal reports at these meetings, representing the office's best interests and their thoughts on relevant matters.

Additionally, Den Boer may also serve as Chairperson or Liaison of one or more Realtor Association of the Sioux Empire Committees or Task Forces if requested by the President, attend monthly meetings and special meetings as requested by the President, and serve as Chairperson/Member of assigned SDAR Committee. At any given time, she may also be assigned an area of responsibility for which she is to develop a comprehensive understanding and provide updates to the Board of Directors and the rest of the membership during General Membership meetings, as assigned by the President.

Despite the plethora of new responsibilities that come with Den Boer's new position, the office maintains that they entrust her to perform at her best and keep looking after their best interests. They state that she has repeatedly demonstrated that she is capable of handling such obligations with grace and assertiveness.

Those interested in learning more about Ann Den Boer's appointment as the firm's new State Director can visit the company's website for more information. They are also welcome to reach out to the company's representatives and inquire about their services as real estate agents.

Source: <http://www.pressadvantage.com/story/32684-ann-den-boer-named-state-director-of-sd-realtors>