

TNL Expands Nationally

December 11, 2019

The Net Lender, a financial services company based out of California, is pleased to announce that they are expanding nationally. The company currently provides short term financial aid to people in California and the surrounding areas, and with the expansion, hopes to help people across the United States.

A spokesperson for the company says, “The economic situation around the country is so bad that even something as simple as buying a car requires people get financial aid of some form or another. We’re expanding The Net Lender’s reach across the country so that we can help these people secure the money they need without any complications.”

The Net Lender currently has branches in several places across the United States, including but not limited to: Texas, New Mexico, Illinois, Delaware, Michigan, Oregon, Tennessee, Alabama, Kentucky, and Oklahoma. In several states, The Net Lender actually has more than one branch to ensure maximum coverage. With their new plans to expand, the financial services company is hoping to open new locations in other states across the US and help more people.

“We know how anxiety-inducing it can be when you suddenly find yourself needing money you don’t currently have,” says The Net Lender’s spokesperson. “In such situations, if you don’t want to opt for traditional forms of financial aid, you can instead choose a Title loan from The Net Lender. Whatever you need the money for — whether it’s to buy a car, medical bills, school fees, rent, auto repairs or whatever else — soon enough, wherever you are in the United States, you’ll be able to count on your local The Net Lender branch to help you.”

The company provides honest and fair rates for people seeking quick financial aid by using their vehicles as collateral. In addition, The Net Lender also works with it’s clients to set up payment plans that work with the clients’ income. The company is also quick to boast that people looking for financial help from them don’t need to worry about any hidden fees or extra costs that will cause complications later.

The Net Lender’s dedication to providing quick and easy financial aid has earned them a reputation as a dependable and reliable company. On TrustPilot, the company has a rating of 4 out of 5 stars. In his review, Andy Jones says, “If you need a title loan, call this place and only this place. I was in desperate need of cash, I had some financial problems that I won't get into... life happens. I called around a few places and was not getting much help, so I decided to call The Net Lender. I had a professional employee explain the process and got financial aid the same day. I highly recommend this company.”

In a review found on the company’s website, Kim Redding says, “Getting financial aid was significantly easier than I anticipated. Bryan was really knowledgeable and walked me through the method with ease. If I’m ever in a tough position again, I’m confident that they will be able to help me out! Incredibly nice and very helpful!”

Another review by Jeremiah Lutes reads, “I am the head of the household and I know the pressure that one can get from bills and discrepancies in your credit. I used the car that I bought before I got married and it turned out to be such a lifesaver. I took out about half of what I was offered and wasn't pressured any further. Thank you, and hopefully my car will be eligible again if need be."
