

Avenues Of Life Counseling And Coaching Welcomes New Counselor

January 13, 2020

Avenues of Life Counseling and Coaching, based in Gainesville, Georgia, is pleased to welcome George Evans to the ranks of the organization's counselors. To celebrate and welcome Evans, Avenues of Life has shared information on his background, giving interested parties better insight into what they may expect when they book an appointment with the organization's newcomer.

Evans expresses his excitement at the prospect of beginning counseling sessions with clients at the organization, saying, "I am blessed to be a counselor at Avenues of Life Counseling and Coaching. My focus is to help my clients experience peace and joy in their lives. Because, in God, there is always hope; no matter what the issue. Through his love and grace, we are worthy. I invite anyone who has lost his path to give us a visit, as we can certainly help you get back on track and find the happiness that you so much desire."

