

Jesse Guerra joins Carabin Shaw

December 30, 2019

SAN ANTONIO -- Carabin Shaw Law Firm announced today that attorney Jesse E. Guerra Jr. has joined the San Antonio-based firm which specializes in personal injury cases. Mr. Guerra, a recognized pool and water safety expert, serves as legal counsel for the National Drowning Prevention Association. In addition, he was chosen to assist the Consumer Safety Commission with the creation of programs for drowning prevention. He specializes in swimming pool injuries, associated wrongful deaths and Traumatic Brain Injury.

"Jesse Guerra has spent his career protecting the rights of the injured and their families, helping them receive compensation after drowning and other types of personal injury accidents. We are pleased to welcome Mr. Guerra and his expertise in personal injury and aquatic litigation to our Carabin Shaw team. He is a valuable addition who is well-respected as a litigator," said James Shaw, Carabin Shaw founder and managing partner.

"I look forward to serving Carabin Shaw clients in Texas, as well as in other states, and to contributing to the growth of our law firm," said Mr. Guerra. "My passion is to help make our communities safer for your children and for mine, one case at a time." Previously in private practice, Mr. Guerra specializes in personal injury, water and swimming pool accidents, and wrongful death lawsuits.

Carabin Shaw Law Firm has over 25 years of experience helping clients get the attention they deserve and representing people who have suffered catastrophic injuries and tragic wrongful deaths. Headquartered in San Antonio, Texas, Carabin Shaw attorneys practice law in the fields of Auto Accidents, Semi Truck Accidents/18 Wheeler Crashes, Motorcycle Accidents, Injured Workers, Wrongful Death and Product Liability, in addition to other specialties.

Source: <http://www.pressadvantage.com/story/33412-jesse-guerra-joins-carabin-shaw>