

SeboCalm Launches Face Wash For Sensitive Skin on Amazon

January 10, 2020

SeboCalm, based in Or Yehuda, Israel, has announced that they have released on Amazon the SeboCalm sensitive skin face soap, an improved face wash for sensitive skin. This is a non oily, rich, facial cleansing soap that can remove dirt and decrease blemishes without skin irritation. It is a water based daily repair face wash for intense skin health and balance. It provides soothing relief therapy that is recommended by dermatologists. This has been found to prevent acne breakouts and skin control, and that it is best for irritated, itchy, oil, dry, or combination skin prone to acne, blackheads, pimples, rosacea, redness, eczema, and dermatitis.

The SeboCalm sensitive skin face soap was subjected to sensitivity test on July 15, 2012 at The Institute for Skin Research in Israel, under the direction of Prof. Sarah Brenner, Director and Specialist in Dermatology. It also underwent a hypoallergenic test on August 22, 2012, also at The Institute for Skin Research under the direction of Prof. Sarah Brenner. The tests showed that the SeboCalm Sensitive Skin Face Soap is compatible for all skin types. Also, it is capable of reducing the red, sensitive, irritated and itchy skin symptoms. Furthermore, it can provide deep cleansing without causing the skin to become irritated and feeling dry, and it can soothe sensitive red skin. They also found that this skin face soap felt gentle, lightweight, calming and non-oily. And finally, it was found to be hypoallergenic and vegan & cruelty free. It is appropriate for men and women of all ages.
