

Prime Title Loans Invests In Consumers as San Diego Economic Condition Worsens

January 14, 2020

Prime Title Loans San Diego has announced that they plan to invest in consumers in San Diego, California, despite dismal predictions with regards to its economic condition. The company also continues to educate consumers on loans and various kinds of financial assistance. According to the US Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS), the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U) increased for the two months ending November 2019. Also, for the last 12 months, the CPI-U has increased by 2.6 percent. Furthermore, the inflation rate for the San Diego metropolitan area is higher compared to the national average and most cities for the first six months of 2019. And as indicated in the BLS report, the inflation rate in San Diego has continued its upward trend during the latter part of 2019. This means that people in San Diego are feeling the pressure of high prices, which is making them vulnerable to sudden or unexpected expenses like medical bills. This is where Prime Title Loans San Diego offers help to the residents by providing financial assistance to those who need it.

A spokesperson for Prime Title Loans San Diego explains, “Currently, banks and other conventional sources of financial assistance tend to be more hesitant when it comes to approving applications. Perhaps even those who have good credit aren’t able to easily get a their application approved. Prime Title Loans San Diego understands how the economy has affected everyone. However, there’s still hope! When you apply for financial assistance with Prime Title Loans San Diego, you’ll not only walk through an easy-breezy process, you’ll also be able to get your application approved in just 15 minutes by using your car title as collateral. This is a hassle-free method to get the financing that you need.”

The spokesperson also wants to emphasize that there won’t be any strict requirements for those who want to apply for financial assistance with them. All they’ll need is ownership of a motor vehicle that has a resale value of $5,500 or higher. What is important is that the car or motor vehicle has already been paid in full and that the applicant has the car title. Furthermore, they want to point out that having a perfect credit score is not required. Even those who have a bad credit score may still get their application approved and may still be able to get up to half of the motor vehicle’s resale value.
