

Prestigious Bus Rental Company Helps Make Miami Travel Safer

January 13, 2020

US Coachways, headquartered in Staten Island, New York, is pleased to announce that travelers, even in large groups, can hire the right size of charter vehicle to make the most of their Miami travel itineraries. At this time of year, many groups across America are busy planning their group travel plans for spring trips. Miami is one of the top spots in the country in which to make magical memories, which is why US Coachways offers a plethora of travel options for every kind of traveler.

Ed Telmany, CEO of US Coachways, says, “Miami is one of the premier short break destinations, a place to have fun, enjoy the sun and make memories that last a lifetime. Whether you’re coming for the beaches, golf, a taste of Little Havana, or to party and enjoy the vibe as long as you can, you definitely do not want the hassle of navigating from home, there and back, and getting through busy streets. Ask us how we can help you make the most of what Miami has to offer in our luxurious and comfortable charters, party buses and limousines, or our corporate cars and specialty vehicles.”

Visitors coming to Miami are often stunned to find that it is home to more than 5.5 million residents and over 50,000 hotel rooms. It is also one of Airbnb’s top five American markets. With the average costs of hotel rooms averaging over $240 per night, many are turning to Miami bus rental options to provide safe, comfortable travel and secure their belongings at either end of their journey.

There are thousands of reviews of the company’s services available online. For example, Deanna Hallagan’s 5-Star review on Trustpilot says, “The team at US Coachways did a great job from booking to our return trip. The bus drivers were great—interacted with our group in a very positive way. Our teens loved the phone chargers in every seat. Great experience for all of us at Marillac. Hope we get to do it again.”

Similarly, John Thurston’s 5-Star review says, “Everything worked like clockwork. Dan the driver was very professional and helpful, payment was secured and mission was a success. This is the second year in a row we have used your service, and we will be back next December for the same.”

Telmany observes that, “Seeing such positive feedback from customers online really gives the teams and drivers who work so hard a real lift. I want to thank everyone who has left their comments online; we will continue to earn your trust by providing the best customer service possible. Our teams have the knowledge and experience to make sure that every single one of our customers will have an excellent experience on their trip. Our drivers will go the extra mile to make sure those on board get great service, ensuring their needs are covered and they have a safe trip with any of the vehicles in our fleet.”

US Coachways is America’s largest charter bus provider. With their price match guarantee and high reputation for customer service, cleanliness and safety, their customers always have a reason or more to come back every time they need to plan a trip. Using charter buses is also a more eco-friendly way to travel for many who are looking to reduce their carbon footprint.

The company was recently featured on the NBC 2 news site in an article which discussed why many groups opt for Miami bus rental services. In it, the company states that there are many reasons to opt for such services, “with safety and security being the foremost of them. With a trained and professional driver at the wheel and controlled access to the bus, there is nothing to worry about. The buses also have more legroom than any other mode of transportation, and the seats are plush and wide.” The article also highlights that charter buses are one of the most cost-effective ways to travel in a group, and most charter busses can also take advantage of HOV lanes (high occupancy vehicle only lanes).

Telmany is quoted, saying, “With the safety of you and your personal belongings taken care of, you can travel in a true stress-free, relaxed style. There is no need to worry about the specifics of the trip, which route to take or even lost luggage. We’ll take care of everything for you. In fact, the whole trip will be tailored to suit your needs. You simply have to figure out what you want to do and tell us.”

Those planning trips in 2020, especially to popular destinations like Miami, are encouraged to call or request a price match guaranteed quote through the company’s website at their earliest convenience. US Coachways invites everyone to connect with them on Facebook to stay up to date with their latest news, announcements and giveaways.
