Markus is also offering a free hardback copy of his brand new book, "The PowerX Strategy". He points out that the book has been designed to be easy to understand, even for those who have completely no trading experience. With the PowerX Strategy, people can start trading with a least a $10,000 account. And for those who are not able to come up with $10,000, they can still practice their trading skills, using a paper account.
