

West Bend WI Carpet Cleaning Services Company Owner Talks About Business in a Local News Channel Morning Show

June 25, 2020

Meyer Carpet Cleaning, a carpet cleaning services firm in West Bend, Wisconsin, has announced that Mark Meyer, the business owner, was interviewed on a local news channel morning show where he discussed the business. They are a family-owned business and their team members are all insured, certified, drug tested, and background checked and they work around the clock to make sure they don't disturb the home and business life of their clients. And they're so sure of the high quality of their services that they offer a 100 percent no-risk guarantee, which means that if the client is not happy with their work, they will re-clean the problem area for free. Those who would like to learn more about their services can visit their website at <https://meyercarpetcleaning.business.site>.

Mark Meyer himself says, "We have been happily serving homes as well as organizations in Southern Wisconsin since 1988. Our commitment to excellence and superior customer satisfaction keep us working. Every single project is backed by a 100% cash back assurance. Every business or home deserves to make a terrific impression. Let us help you reveal yours!"
