London, UK ? Maybe they're souvenirs from life's journey. Maybe they're heirlooms or perhaps clothes or shoes. No matter what all this stuff is, it's taking up space ? valuable space ? and now the bedroom closet is overflowing. In order to help London residents with their bedroom storage problems, 4-Wardrobe (www.4-wardrobe.co.uk) has just published a new blog post authored by Michael Frick entitled 'Bespoke Fitted Wardrobes: Solutions to Your Bedroom Storage Problems'.

The article discusses about how ?London accommodation is not known for its spaciousness; often space is at a premium and people have to adjust, adapt, and make do in hundreds of ways?.

?Over the years, wardrobes tend to compress and squash their contents as more clothing gets added,? stated Michael. ?Then it overflows, resulting in wardrobes with just as many clothes hanging outside as in. This leaves one wishing for magic wardrobes that expand along with their contents? but such already exist?not exactly expanding wardrobes, but clever wardrobes that wisely use every inch of space and never seem to be bursting full: bespoke fitted wardrobes.?

The article also discusses how to ?shrewdly exploit unused bedroom space by installing wardrobes made to measure according to each individual bedroom. This sure-fire solution uses space usefully, and makes bedrooms appear more streamlined and even roomier?.
