November 24, 2015 -
Established in 1971 and running successfully for over 40 years, Oriental Rug Care NY has been providing all kinds of rug cleaning services to their clients. They have now introduced new rug cleaning, repair and restoration methods and services widening their work categories for better results.

Carpets add to the beauty of any living space, but cleaning them properly turns out to be a tricky task. Carpets have to face all sorts of troubles like molds, something getting spilled, dust, pet stain, wear and tear, color fading and much more. Getting rid of these rug troubles becomes a cumbersome task for a common person. That is why expert rug cleaning service providers are out there.

Talking about the company services and new introductions, Jerry Ortaz, representing Oriental Rug Care NY said that it is a family owned and operated company, working from 1971 and becoming client favorites with each passing year. He said that the company provides all sorts of carpet services like carpet installation, repair, restoration and carpet stretching, which people generally find difficulties doing. He also added that they work with all carpet material and types, and the company specializes in carpet cleaning services and provides excellent results in carpet stain removal, cleaning, water damage restoration, mold removal etc.

While stating the new introductions, he mentioned that with time company has made several new advances which includes their use of non-toxic materials and green and organic solutions for cleaning. ?We believe in providing the best and safest cleaning results to our clients and that?s what we have been doing for past four decades,? Jerry said. To facilitate customers better, as told, they provide free estimation and pickup and delivery services to them.

Jerry credits his team for the success of their company and successful introduction of new services and methodologies. He said that the company cleaning experts have to go through an intensive training and an 18 month rug cleaning field experience before they are allowed to qualify as their cleaning specialists. ?Our approach has been our success secret,? Jerry says.

With new introductions and constantly maintained high rug cleaning standards, the Oriental Rug Care NY has established themselves as a reliable name over the years.
