

High-Tech Commercial Drain Cleaning in San Diego County Offered by Rooter Hero Plumbing

February 08, 2016

February 08, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

San Diego, CA plumbing company Rooter Hero Plumbing of San Diego County announces new technology for commercial drain cleaning that is faster, more precise, and an affordable option for nearly all budgets. The company is one of the few plumbing services in the area that has trained plumbers available 24 hours a day, seven days a week who know how to apply Scour Jet technology allowing customers to reap the most benefits.

Regular drain cleaning for commercial properties has many advantages. Rooter Hero Plumbing public relations spokeswoman, Jessica Perrault, says, "When drains become clogged, you need a plumber who is highly trained and fully experienced in applying advanced drain cleaning techniques. One of the best kinds of equipment to thoroughly clean drains is the Scour Jet. We know how to properly use this equipment to clear any clog and clean out debris that has accumulated in the plumbing system. With regular use and maintenance, the Scour Jet system can keep your business' plumbing system clog-free for many, many years."

The Scour Jet service for San Diego County commercial properties is proving to be very popular. Many businesses in the area have already put their trust in Rooter Hero Plumbing and appreciate the company's commitment to delivering quality results at budget-friendly prices. Drain cleaning methods like Scour-jetting save businesses money by helping them avoid serious plumbing issues that require extensive repairs and production stoppages.

Since the company started offering the Scour Jet service, it has received numerous positive reviews.

"Our technician, Mike, was on time and he understood our needs," says Emma M.C of Chula Vista, who operates a small retail store. "He performed his task in a professional manner. He took time to make sure the clog was fully gone and even performed a free video camera inspection so that I could see for myself that the pipes were clear."

Companies interested in this high-tech drain cleaning technology are encouraged to visit Rooter Hero Plumbing's website at <https://rooterhero.com/san-diego> or call them directly at 619-577-4417 for further information. The company promises free, no-obligation estimates and fully guarantees all work.
