May 04, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Kevin Cortright appears weekly on KMIR Channel 4 as a guest during the live broadcast of Desert Living. The host, Bryan Gallo, speaks with him about an array of topics when it comes to law and attorneys in the Palm Springs area. You can enjoy a four-minute feature of Kevin at 11:30 AM every Friday.

In this episode, Kevin Cortright is interviewed by Bryan Gallo about his personal life, he career choices, and why he chose the type of law that he practices. They go over his favorite parts of being a lawyer in Palm Springs, as well as what motivates him to advocate for his clients. This episode can be seen directly on www.cortrightlaw.com.

When asked how he started as a lawyer, the story is different than most. Kevin stated that he used to be secure in his job as an Operations Manager at Federal Express. However, he wanted more. In his mid-thirties he quit his job, applied to law school at the University of LaVerne, and went after what he wanted.

Kevin Cortright attributes his choice of being a bankruptcy, personal injury, and workers? compensation attorney to his passion of helping people through their stressful times and winning cases in order to help them through their suffering. When asked what he thought the most important part of being a lawyer was, he stated that it was listening to both his clients and the judge thoroughly before moving forward.
